

OFFER LETTER

Date: 07/07/2026

To,

Sumit Mahendra Kamble,

Address: A/3/ 301, Avadhjyot Apartment, Gawli Wada, Opp Abhay Villa Apartment, Nhavi Pada, Badlapur East - 421503

Subject: Offer of Employment

Dear Sumit,

Following your application and subsequent interview with us, we are pleased to offer you employment with Yanisa Execution Private Limited (hereinafter referred to as "Yanisa Execution") subject to the terms and conditions set out in this Offer Letter and the annexures attached hereto.

1. Congratulations & Appointment

We are delighted to inform you that you have been selected for the position of Flutter Developer in the Technology Department at Yanisa Execution. We believe your skills, experience, and professional background will be a valuable addition to our organization.

2. Position & Reporting

Designation: Flutter Developer

Department: Technology Department

Reporting To: Yash Sanghavi

Your duties and responsibilities may be modified, expanded, or reassigned as per business requirements.

3. Nature of Engagement - Assignment-Based Roles

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Offer Letter, the Employee has been engaged specifically in connection with an Assignment / Project / Client ("Assignment"), the Employee's continued employment shall be linked to the availability, continuity, and business requirement of such Assignment.

The Company shall be entitled, at its sole discretion, to terminate the Employee's employment in the event that: the Assignment is completed, discontinued, suspended, reduced in scope, or terminated, in whole or in part, for any reason whatsoever; or the Company does not have any other assignment, project, or role available for which the Employee's continued engagement as an employee is required.

Termination of employment under this Clause shall be effected by serving notice, in accordance with Clause 11.1, and shall not be treated as retrenchment, redundancy, or termination without cause. The Employee shall not be entitled to claim continued employment, damages, or compensation merely on the ground that the Assignment has concluded or that no alternate assignment has been offered.

4. Date of Joining

Your date of joining shall be 15th July 2026, or such other date as may be mutually agreed in writing.

Failure to join on the agreed date without prior written approval shall render this offer liable to withdrawal.

5. Place of Posting

Your initial place of posting shall be The Gateway Wadhwa, Mulund West. However, you may be transferred to any other location, branch, associate, or group company, as per business exigencies.

6. Compensation

Your Cost to Company (CTC) shall be ₹3,60,000 (Rupees Three Lakhs Sixty Thousand Only) per annum, subject to statutory deductions and company policies.

The detailed salary structure and components are provided in "Annexure A" attached hereto.

7. Probation

You shall be placed on probation for a period of three (3) months commencing from your date of joining. During the probation period, your performance, conduct, and overall suitability for the role shall be evaluated.

Confirmation of your employment shall be subject to satisfactory performance, including achievement of assigned KPIs, adherence to reporting standards, demonstration of role ownership, professional conduct, and successful completion of assigned responsibilities. Upon meeting these requirements, your employment shall be confirmed in writing by the Company.

The Company reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to extend the probation period to such period not exceeding 6 months or terminate your employment during the probation period by providing notice in accordance with the applicable terms.

8. Acceptance of Offer

This offer is subject to:

- Verification of documents and credentials
- Your agreement to comply with company policies and code of conduct

Any material misrepresentation in documents, credentials, or background information discovered at any point during employment constitutes gross misconduct and may result in immediate termination without notice, without prejudice to recovery of any resulting losses.

9. Amendment

The Company may modify roles, designations, responsibilities, and reporting structures per business needs. Any reduction in fixed CTC requires prior written consent of the Employee. Other changes will be communicated by 30 days' written notice.

10. POSH Compliance

The Company is committed to a harassment-free workplace. The Employee shall comply with the Company's Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) Policy under the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013.

By accepting this offer, you acknowledge and agree to the terms mentioned in the letter and its annexures. We look forward to welcoming you to the Yanisa Execution family and wish you a successful and rewarding association.

Warm regards,

For Yanisa Execution Private Limited

Name: Yash Sanghavi

Designation: Founder & CEO

Acknowledgement & Acceptance

I Sumit Mahendra Kamble, hereby accept the above offer of employment along with the terms and conditions stated in this Offer Letter and Annexures A, B & C.

Date: _____ Signature: _____

Please sign and return a copy of this letter along with the annexures as a token of your acceptance.

Note: The Company shall accept the Offer Letter as validly accepted if the candidate conveys consent through electronic signature or email confirmation. Mere non-signing of the physical Offer Letter shall not, by itself, be deemed as rejection of the offer, provided the candidate has otherwise communicated acceptance in writing through the aforesaid modes.

ANNEXURE A - COMPENSATION STRUCTURE

Employee: Sumit Mahendra Kamble | Role: Flutter Developer | Effective Date: 15/07/2026

(Amount in INR)

Details	Per Month (in INR)	Per Annual (in INR)
Basic	15,000.00	1,80,000.00
HRA	4,500.00	54,000.00
Special Allowance	10,500.00	1,26,000.00
GROSS SALARY	30,000.00	3,60,000.00
Provident Fund	0	0
ESIC	0	0
Professional Tax (Note 3)	-200	-2,500.00
NET SALARY	29,800.00	3,57,500.00
Employer Contribution to PF	0	0
Employer Contribution to ESIC	0	0
Total CTC	30,000.00	3,60,000.00

Note:

1. Statutory Deductions

All statutory deductions such as Provident Fund, ESI, Professional Tax, Income Tax (TDS), etc., shall be deducted as per applicable laws.

2. Salary Credit Policy

Salaries shall be processed and credited on the 10th day of each month, payable on a pro-rata basis for days worked in a given month, subject to statutory deductions and completion of payroll formalities.

- For employees joining on or before the 9th day of a month: The Employee's first salary shall be credited on the 10th day of the following month.
- Joining on or after the 10th day of a month: The Employee's first salary shall be credited on the 10th day of the month after the next payroll cycle.

Salary for the month of joining shall be calculated on a pro-rata basis from the actual date of joining. The Company reserves the right to modify the salary credit schedule in accordance with its payroll policies and applicable laws.

3. Professional Tax

Professional Tax shall be deducted in accordance with applicable law, aggregating to Rs. 2,500 per annum. An amount of Rs. 200 per month shall be deducted for the months of March to January, and Rs. 300 shall be deducted for the month of February.

4. Salary Revisions

Salary revisions, if any, shall be based on performance, business requirements, and management discretion and shall not be deemed automatic or guaranteed.

5. ESIC and EPFO

As of the date of this Offer Letter, PF and ESIC are not applicable to the Company. If either becomes applicable under law, the Company shall make the required employer contributions and deduct applicable employee contributions, and the compensation structure shall stand revised accordingly to ensure statutory compliance.

ANNEXURE B - EMPLOYEE TERMS & CODE OF CONDUCT

This document describes policies that apply to all employees of Yanisa Execution Private Limited. These policies help us build a productive, lawful, high-performance, and professional workplace.

1. Working Hours & Working Days

1.1 Working Days

The normal working days of the Company shall be Monday to Saturday, unless otherwise notified by the Company from time to time. Sundays and declared public holidays shall generally be observed as non-working days, subject to business requirements.

1.2 Working Hours

The standard working hours shall be from 09:30 A.M. to 06:30 P.M., inclusive of reasonable breaks, as may be determined by the Company. Employees are expected to be punctual and maintain regular attendance during working hours.

1.3 Attendance

Attendance shall be recorded through designated systems including biometric records, written check-in, digital confirmation, or such other mechanism as determined by the Company.

1.4 Late Policy

- a) Three (3) instances of late arrival within a calendar month shall result in a deduction equivalent to half (0.5) day's salary.
- b) Repeated or habitual non-compliance with reporting timelines may lead to appropriate disciplinary action, as deemed fit by the Company.

Timely and accurate attendance marking and validation are mandatory prerequisites for salary processing.

1.5 Flexibility & Business Exigencies

Based on operational requirements, client deliverables, deadlines, audits, or exigencies of work, the Employee may be required to work before or after the prescribed working hours, on weekends, or on holidays.

1.6 Change in Working Schedule

The Company reserves the right to revise, modify, or re-schedule working days and/or working hours (including shift-based work, if applicable) at its sole discretion, with or without prior notice, in accordance with applicable laws.

2. Code of Conduct

The Employee is expected to conduct themselves in a professional, ethical, and lawful manner at all times. The Employee shall avoid any conflict of interest, and shall not engage in any form of harassment, discrimination, or misconduct.

The Employee shall comply with all Company policies, codes, and procedures, as well as all applicable laws and regulations. Any violation of this Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment, in accordance with Company policy and applicable law.

The Employee agrees that:

- a) Daily, weekly, and monthly KRAs form an integral part of employment obligations.
- b) Timely submission of performance reports, activity logs, project updates, and any other reporting obligations specific to the role is mandatory.
- c) Failure to meet minimum performance benchmarks or reporting standards may result in performance review, placement on a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP), or impact variable compensation eligibility.

Moonlighting & Dual Employment Prohibition:

During employment, the Employee shall not engage in any other employment, consultancy, or business activity, paid or unpaid, that:

- (a) competes with the Company;
- (b) involves any Company client or prospect;
- (c) requires use of Company time or assets - without prior written approval of the management.

Violation of this clause shall constitute gross misconduct and grounds for immediate termination without notice.

Conflict of Interest:

The Employee shall disclose and avoid conflicts of interest including: financial interest in clients, vendors, or competitors; receipt of gifts or benefits from third parties beyond a nominal value of Rs. 500; personal relationships influencing business decisions. All conflicts must be disclosed in writing to the immediate reporting manager immediately upon arising.

3. Performance Improvement Plan (PIP)

In the event of underperformance or failure to meet expected performance standards, the Company may, after providing at least one written performance warning, place the Employee on a Performance Improvement Plan ("PIP") for a minimum period of thirty (30) days.

The PIP shall be communicated in writing and shall specify the performance concerns, improvement objectives, timelines, and evaluation criteria. The Employee shall have five (5) working days to provide a written response to the PIP. Performance during the PIP period shall be evaluated by the Employee's reporting manager in consultation with Human Resources.

If the Employee fails to demonstrate satisfactory improvement during the PIP period, the Company may terminate the employment in accordance with this Offer Letter and applicable law. The Employee shall not be entitled to any variable compensation for any period during which the Employee is subject to an active PIP.

4. Leave Policy

Leave entitlement shall be governed by the Company's Leave Policy, as amended from time to time. All leave is subject to prior approval of the reporting manager and shall be granted based on business requirements.

4.1 Paid Leaves / Earned Leaves

An employee is entitled to earned leave up to 12 working days in a year (exclusive of intervening weekends or public holidays) only after successful completion of a probation period of 3 months.

During the probation period, any leave taken must be pre-approved in writing by the reporting manager. Any leave availed during the probation period of 3 months will be deducted from the salary.

Earned leave entitlement will be on a prorated basis for employees joining during the year. A maximum of 7 earned leaves can be availed at a stretch.

Any unused earned leave shall be carried forward to the following year, subject to a maximum accumulation of thirty (30) days. Any earned leave balance in excess of eighteen (18) days at the time of carry forward shall automatically lapse.

4.2 Sick Leave

Employees shall be entitled to six (6) sick leaves per calendar year. Any sick leave availed for two (2) or more consecutive working days, including cases where such leave spans Friday and Monday, must be supported by a valid medical certificate.

Unused sick leave shall lapse at the end of the year and shall not be eligible for encashment. Any sick leave availed in excess of the prescribed entitlement shall be treated as Loss of Pay (LOP).

4.3 Public Holidays

Employees are entitled to thirteen (13) public holidays as may be notified by the Company at the beginning of each year.

In case the working of the office is likely to be hampered on account of strike, power cut, etc., the Company may declare a public or a weekly holiday (except national holidays) to be a normal working day and/or may declare the affected day to be a holiday.

4.4 Unauthorized Absence

Unauthorized absence refers to absence from duty without prior approval or proper intimation. In the event of any unauthorized absence, the Employee shall be required to submit a written explanation to the immediate reporting manager, as may be required by the Company.

No salary or wages shall be payable for the period of such unauthorized absence. Any unauthorized absence may attract disciplinary action in accordance with Company policy.

Absence from duty for a continuous period of five (5) days or more without prior approval or intimation may be treated as absconding, and the Company reserves the right to initiate appropriate disciplinary and legal action, including termination of employment, without prejudice to its other rights under law. HR shall send written notice to the Employee's registered address. If no response within 3 working days of notice, employment shall be deemed terminated effective from the first day of absence, without notice pay, without prejudice to the Company's other rights.

4.5 Leave During Notice Period

Employees shall not be entitled to avail any leave during the notice period. Any leave taken during the notice period shall be treated as Loss of Pay (LOP).

Notwithstanding the above, any unused leave standing to the credit of the Employee at the time of separation may be adjusted against the notice period only with the prior written approval of both the immediate reporting manager and the Human Resources department. In the absence of such approval, unused leave, if any, shall be settled as part of the Full and Final (F&F) settlement, in accordance with Company policy.

4.6 Other Terms

- Leave approval is subject to managerial discretion and business requirements.
- For calculating leave accounts, "year" shall mean the calendar year commencing on the first day of January and ending on the last day of December of that year.
- Leave, other than maternity leave, cannot be claimed as a matter of right. Discretion is reserved with the authority empowered to sanction leave, to refuse or revoke leave at any time, depending on exigencies of the company's work. Maternity leave shall be provided in accordance with the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961, as amended.
- An Employee must submit the application for leave in the form of a written request at least 5 working days in advance (or immediately for emergency/sick leave) to the immediate manager for approval.
- Employees may take leave only after obtaining permission from the immediate manager. In the event an employee goes on leave without notifying the Company, it will be deemed that the employee has been absent from work without permission, and the period of absence will be treated as loss of pay.
- In case of sick leave, the employee should immediately intimate the immediate manager verbally and post facto seek written approval upon resumption of work.
- Leave records will be maintained strictly by way of application and approval. It is the employee's responsibility to ensure the application is filed and approval is obtained. In case no application is filed, or approval is not received for the same, then such leave shall be deemed as loss of pay.
- In the event of the employees not maintaining regular leave records in the system, the employee's leave balance at the end of the year will, by default, be assumed as zero.
- There is no provision to encash unused leave/s. Employees are directed to take their leave/s annually.

5. Dress Code

Employees being the face of the organization are at all times expected to be well dressed. Employees who frequently meet with clients or prospects are expected to conform to a formal dress code. We expect our employees to be well groomed and avoid wearing clothes that are unprofessional.

Please follow a formal dressing code on weekdays. On Saturday, casual dressing is allowed (in case there is no pre-planned meeting with external stakeholders).

6. Company Assets

Any assets, equipment, materials, software, data, access credentials, or property provided to the Employee by the Company, including but not limited to laptops, mobile phones, access cards, documents, and systems ("Company Assets"), shall at all times remain the exclusive property of the Company.

Company Assets shall be used solely for official and authorized purposes and shall not be misused, transferred, or shared. The Employee shall be responsible for the safe custody and proper use of all Company Assets.

All Company Assets shall be returned immediately upon demand or upon separation from employment, in good condition, subject to normal wear and tear. Any loss, damage, or misuse of Company Assets caused due to negligence, wilful misconduct, or unauthorized use may be recovered from the Employee, without prejudice to the Company's other rights under law.

7. Smoke-Free & Drug-Free Workplace

The Company maintains a smoke-free and drug-free workplace. Smoking is strictly prohibited within all Company premises, including offices, restrooms, lobbies, staircases, warehouses, and other enclosed areas.

The possession, use, distribution, or sale of illegal drugs, narcotics, or prohibited substances on Company premises is strictly prohibited. Reporting to work or remaining on Company premises under the influence of drugs or intoxicating substances is also not permitted.

Any violation of this policy shall be treated as serious misconduct and may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment, in addition to any action permissible under applicable law.

8. Confidentiality

8.1 Confidential Information

During the course of employment, the Employee shall have access to certain confidential, proprietary, and sensitive information relating to the Company, its affiliates, clients, partners, vendors, stakeholders, and employees ("Confidential Information"), whether disclosed orally, visually, electronically, or in writing, solely for the purpose of performing official duties.

Confidential Information includes, but is not limited to:

- Employee and HR records
- Unpublished financial, commercial, and business information
- Customer, partner, vendor, and stakeholder data
- Customer lists (existing and prospective)
- Business plans, goals, forecasts, strategies, and initiatives marked or treated as confidential
- Source code, software, AI models, automation workflows, and technical systems
- Any third-party confidential or proprietary information received by the Company

8.2 Confidentiality Obligations

The Employee acknowledges that Confidential Information is of significant value and that any unauthorized use or disclosure may cause irreparable harm to the Company.

Accordingly, the Employee agrees and undertakes:

- To maintain strict confidentiality of all Confidential Information during and after employment;
- To use Confidential Information solely for authorized business purposes and strictly in accordance with Company instructions;
- Not to disclose, divulge, publish, reproduce, copy, discuss, or otherwise make available Confidential Information to any third party without prior written authorization of the Company;
- To hold third-party confidential information in the strictest confidence, in accordance with the Company's obligations to such third parties.

No rights, license, or ownership interest in the Confidential Information are granted to the Employee by virtue of employment.

The Employee shall not post content referencing Company clients, projects, or Confidential Information on any social media platform, messaging application, or public forum. Any post referencing a Company client or business win requires prior written approval. Disparagement of the Company, its management, or its clients on any platform shall constitute a disciplinary offence and may result in termination of employment.

8.3 Data Protection & Information Security

As part of its data protection commitment, the Company may:

- Restrict and monitor access to sensitive data;
- Implement secure IT systems, encryption, backups, and access controls;
- Establish transparent data collection and protection procedures;
- Train employees on data privacy and information security practices.

The Employee is expected to act responsibly and diligently while handling Confidential Information and must:

- Secure confidential information at all times (physical and electronic);
- Use only authorized and secure devices and systems;
- Shred or securely dispose of confidential documents when no longer required;
- Disclose Confidential Information internally only on a need-to-know basis and with proper authorization;
- Ensure confidential documents remain within Company premises unless movement is expressly authorized.

The Employee shall not:

- Use Confidential Information for personal gain or benefit;
- Disclose Confidential Information to any unauthorized person or entity;
- Store, copy, or replicate confidential data on personal or insecure devices;
- Remove or transmit confidential materials without approval.

8.4 Return of Information

Upon termination of employment for any reason, the Employee shall immediately return all Confidential Information, documents, data, devices, and materials belonging to the Company, whether in physical or electronic form, and shall not retain any copies thereof.

8.5 Exclusions

Confidentiality obligations shall not apply to information that:

- Was lawfully known to the Employee prior to disclosure by the Company, as evidenced by written records;
- Was lawfully obtained from a third party without breach of confidentiality;
- Was independently developed without use of Confidential Information; or
- Was disclosed by the Company without confidentiality restrictions.

8.6 Disciplinary Action & Termination

Any intentional breach of confidentiality or data protection obligations shall be treated as gross misconduct and may result in immediate termination of employment, in addition to legal action.

Unintentional breaches may attract disciplinary action depending on their seriousness and frequency. Repeated negligence or disregard of confidentiality obligations, even if unintentional, may result in termination.

8.7 Survival

The obligations under this clause shall survive the termination or expiry of employment, irrespective of the reason for separation.

9. Intellectual Property Rights (IPR)

9.1 Ownership of Intellectual Property

All inventions, discoveries, designs, developments, works, documents, software, source code, object code, data, materials, processes, methodologies, models, reports, and other intellectual property, whether patentable or copyrightable or otherwise protectable ("Company Intellectual Property"), that are conceived, created, developed, authored, contributed to, modified, or improved by the Employee, whether alone or jointly with others, during the course of employment, shall be the exclusive property of the Company.

Such Company Intellectual Property shall vest in the Company immediately upon creation, irrespective of whether it is created:

- During working hours or otherwise;
- Using Company resources, tools, systems, or otherwise; or
- At the Company's premises or elsewhere.

9.2 Work for Hire & Assignment

All copyrightable works created by the Employee within the scope of employment shall be deemed to be "work made for hire", and the Company shall be the first and exclusive owner of such works.

To the extent any Intellectual Property does not vest automatically in the Company by operation of law, the Employee hereby irrevocably and perpetually assigns to the Company all right, title, and interest, including all present and future Intellectual Property Rights, in such Company Intellectual Property, without any additional consideration beyond employment and remuneration.

The Employee waives any moral rights or similar rights to the extent permitted by law and agrees not to raise any claim or objection regarding ownership of Company Intellectual Property.

9.3 No License or Rights Retained

No license or right, express or implied, in the Company Intellectual Property is granted to the Employee by virtue of employment. The Employee shall not claim any ownership or interest in any Company Intellectual Property.

The Employee shall not input Confidential Information, client data, or business strategies into any third-party AI tool, language model, or automated system without prior written approval. All AI-generated work product created within the scope of employment is the exclusive property of the Company.

9.4 Restrictions on Use

The Employee shall not, without prior written authorization:

- Copy, reproduce, modify, reverse-engineer, decompile, disassemble, or create derivative works of any Company Intellectual Property or Confidential Information;
- Remove, alter, or obscure any copyright, trademark, confidentiality, or ownership notices; or
- Use Company Intellectual Property for any purpose other than authorized business purposes.

9.5 Cooperation & Power of Attorney

The Employee agrees to execute all documents and perform all acts reasonably required to perfect, protect, enforce, or vest the Company's rights in the Company Intellectual Property, both during and after employment, at the Company's cost.

For this purpose, the Employee hereby irrevocably appoints the Company as attorney-in-fact to execute such documents on the Employee's behalf, if required.

9.6 Third-Party Rights

The Employee represents and warrants that:

- No Company Intellectual Property created by the Employee infringes any third-party intellectual property rights; and
- The Employee shall not knowingly use or introduce any third-party intellectual property in the course of employment without proper authorization.

9.7 Survival

This clause shall survive termination or expiry of employment, irrespective of the reason for separation.

10. Non-Solicitation & Non-Compete

10.1 Non-Solicitation

During the term of employment and for a period of 36 (Thirty-Six) months after separation, the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly:

- Solicit, induce, or attempt to solicit or induce any employee of the Company to terminate or alter their employment with the Company; or
- Solicit, divert, or attempt to solicit or divert any clients, customers, vendors, or business partners of the Company for any purpose competing with or adverse to the interests of the Company.

Any breach of this clause may result in disciplinary action and/or legal proceedings, including liquidated damages of Rs. 10,00,000 per client solicited or per employee induced, or actual damages, whichever is higher, together with injunctive relief, without prejudice to the Company's other rights and remedies available under this Offer Letter or applicable law.

10.2 Non-Compete

During the term of employment and for a period of sixty (60) months following cessation of employment for any reason, the Employee shall not, directly or indirectly, whether as an employee, consultant, partner, proprietor, director, shareholder, advisor, or in any other capacity:

- engage, associate, render services to, or accept any assignment, employment, consultancy, or business arrangement with any client, prospective client, or customer of the Company with whom the Employee had any interaction, dealing, or exposure during the course of employment; or
- engage, associate, render services to, or accept any assignment, employment, consultancy, directorship, or business arrangement with any person or entity that I direct or indirect competitor of the Company, in any capacity that is the same as or substantially similar to the business carried on by the Company.

The Employee acknowledges that this restriction is reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate business interests, Confidential Information, and client relationships of the Company, having regard to the nature of the Employee's role and access to Confidential Information during employment.

Any breach of this clause may result in disciplinary action and/or legal proceedings, including liquidated damages of Rs. 10,00,000 per client solicited or per employee induced, or actual damages, whichever is higher, together with injunctive relief, without prejudice to the Company's other rights and remedies available under this Offer Letter or applicable law.

11. Resignation & Notice Period

11.1 Termination & Notice Period

The Employee may terminate the employment by giving written notice in accordance with the following notice period:

During Probation: Thirty (30) days' notice

After Confirmation: Sixty (60) days' notice

The notice period shall commence from the date of submission of written resignation by the Employee to the reporting manager, with a copy marked to Human Resources. The Company shall acknowledge receipt within 5 working days.

The Company reserves the right to waive, reduce, extend, or adjust the notice period, or to place the Employee on garden leave, at its sole discretion.

11.2 Resignation Process

- The Employee must submit the resignation in writing or by official email to the immediate reporting manager.
- The reporting manager shall discuss the resignation with the Employee and may accept or reject the resignation based on business requirements.
- If, upon discussion, the resignation is mutually agreed to be withdrawn, the Employee shall confirm such withdrawal in writing or by email.
- Where the resignation is accepted, the reporting manager shall communicate the acceptance in writing or by email and inform the HR department.
- If the resignation is neither accepted nor rejected within three (3) weeks from the date of submission, it shall be deemed to have been accepted, and HR shall initiate the exit process.

11.3 Service of Notice Period

Employees are required to serve the full notice period as stipulated in the employment contract. If the Employee is unable to serve the required notice period, the Employee shall be liable to pay salary in lieu of the unserved notice period.

Acceptance of salary in lieu of notice shall be at the sole discretion of the Company.

Further, the Employee shall be required to satisfactorily complete all assigned tasks, projects, and handover obligations during the notice period. In the event of failure to complete such tasks or handover to the satisfaction of the Company, the Company shall have the right to extend the notice period for such additional number of days as it may deem necessary to ensure proper completion of work and handover, without any additional compensation beyond the applicable salary.

Further, if the Employee leaves employment without completing the notice period and without the Company's acceptance of salary in lieu thereof, the Company shall be entitled to levy a penalty of ₹3,00,000 (Three Lakhs Only), which may be recovered from any dues payable to the Employee or otherwise, without prejudice to the Company's other rights and remedies under applicable law.

The aggregate recovery under this clause and Clause 7 (lock-in) shall not exceed [AGGREGATE RECOVERY CAP] in total unless actual proven damages are higher.

11.4 Exit Formalities

Upon receipt of resignation acceptance, HR shall issue a written communication confirming the Employee's last working day along with the exit checklist (Annexure C), which must be duly completed and submitted by the Employee on or before the last working day.

11.5 During the Notice Period, the Employee shall:

- Complete all assigned tasks and responsibilities; and
- Ensure proper handover of work, documents, data, and assignments to the reporting manager or designated person on or before the last working day.

11.6 Leave During Notice Period

Employees shall not be entitled to avail any leave during the notice period. Any leave taken during the notice period shall be treated as Loss of Pay (LOP).

Availing leave during the notice period may result in extension of the notice period, at the Company's discretion. Adjustment of leave against the notice period shall be solely at the discretion of the Company.

11.7 Early Relieving

- If an Employee seeks early release, the unserved portion of the notice period shall be recovered from salary or other dues.
- Adjustment of a maximum of fifteen (15) days of unserved notice period may be permitted only if the Employee has an equivalent balance of Privilege Leave (PL), subject to approval.
- Any early relieving shall be entirely at the discretion of the HOD and HR, and shall not be claimed as a right.

11.8 Leave Encashment

No leave of any nature shall be encashable upon resignation or separation.

12. Handover Guidelines

Upon submission and acceptance of resignation, and during the notice period, the Employee shall be required to complete a proper and documented handover of all duties and responsibilities to the designated person.

The handover documentation shall include, but not be limited to:

- Complete details of clients, customers, vendors, distributors, and dealers, as applicable;
- Current status of ongoing work, assignments, deliverables, and projects;
- Clear documentation of job responsibilities, processes, and workflows;
- For technology roles: source code, repositories, API credentials, server configurations, and technical documentation;
- For content/media roles: raw files, project files, CMS access, publishing schedules, and brand assets;
- For finance/legal roles: pending matters, document registers, filing records, and compliance timelines;
- For sales/BD roles: CRM data, pipeline status, client communication records, and account details;
- For operations/HR roles: process SOPs, vendor contacts, ongoing contracts, and team information.

The Employee shall complete and submit the prescribed handover form to the HR department. The person receiving the handover shall ensure that the processes are clearly documented and explained, both in writing and verbally, and the handover shall be duly acknowledged and signed in the presence of the Head of Department (HOD).

Failure to complete a satisfactory handover may result in delay of exit clearance and Full & Final settlement.

13. Full and Final Settlement (F&F Process)

Full & Final settlement shall include:

- Salary up to last working day (pro-rata basis)
- Approved reimbursements with valid supporting documents

The Full & Final settlement process shall be initiated from the later of:

- The Employee's last working day, or
- The date on which all exit formalities and "no dues" clearances are submitted to HR.

The F&F settlement shall be completed within forty-five (45) days from such date, subject to completion of all exit formalities.

13.1 Recoveries & Adjustments

The Employee shall be required to settle and/or shall be liable for recovery of:

- Any loan or salary advance, if applicable;
- Any outstanding dues or recoveries payable to the Company;
- Obligations arising out of bonds, undertakings, or lock-in agreements.

The final payable amount shall be released after adjusting all recoverable amounts, including but not limited to:

- Unserved notice period salary, where applicable;
- Excess leave availed or excess salary paid;
- Statutory deductions including TDS;
- Salary advances, loans, or other outstanding dues.

13.2 Salary on Hold

The Company reserves the right to withhold salary in the following circumstances:

- Recovery Hold: Where recoveries are pending from the Employee;
- Notice Period Hold: Where the Employee has not served the complete notice period, salary may be withheld to recover the unserved notice period.

Salary on hold shall be released only upon settlement of all dues and completion of exit formalities.

14. Experience Letter Policy

An Experience Letter shall be issued to the Employee subject to fulfillment of the following conditions:

- a) Completion of a minimum of 6 months of continuous service with the Company;
- b) Submission of a formal resignation and completion of the applicable notice period, unless otherwise waived in writing by the Company;
- c) Completion of all prescribed exit formalities, including submission of required documents and clearances;
- d) Full and final settlement of all dues; and
- e) Return and clearance of all Company assets, documents, data, credentials, and any other property belonging to the Company.

The Company reserves the right to withhold issuance of the Experience Letter in the event of any pending disciplinary proceedings, financial liabilities, breach of employment terms, or non-compliance with the above requirements. In the event disciplinary proceedings are pending, the Company shall issue the Experience Letter within 30 days of conclusion of such proceedings, or within 60 days of the last working day, whichever is earlier.

15. Termination

Employment may be terminated by either Party by providing written notice as per Clause 11.1.

The Company may terminate employment without notice in cases of (including but not limited to):

- Misconduct
- Breach of confidentiality
- Fraud, dishonesty, or gross negligence
- Violation of Company policies

In all cases of termination for cause (except abandonment), the Company shall issue a written show cause notice and provide the Employee an opportunity to respond within five (5) working days before the final termination order. Immediate suspension pending inquiry remains at the Company's discretion.

Such termination shall be without prejudice to the Company's right to initiate disciplinary or legal action, as permissible under applicable law.

16. Governing Law, Jurisdiction and Dispute Resolution

This employment shall be governed by the laws of India. Courts at Mumbai shall have exclusive jurisdiction.

All disputes shall first be attempted to be resolved through good-faith discussion within 30 days. If unresolved, disputes shall be referred to sole arbitration under the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, with seat at Mumbai.

Arbitration costs shall be borne equally unless otherwise directed by the arbitrator. Nothing in this clause shall prevent either Party from approaching a court of competent jurisdiction for urgent interim or injunctive relief to protect its legitimate business interests, pending arbitration.

ANNEXURE C - EXIT CHECKLIST & DATA DELETION CERTIFICATE

Employee Name: [EMPLOYEE NAME] | Last Working Day: [DATE]

Department: [DEPARTMENT] | Designation: [DESIGNATION]

Exit Formality	Completed	Sign-Off By
Return of laptop / devices / peripherals	Yes / No	_____
Return of access cards / office keys / ID cards	Yes / No	_____
Company email access revoked / transferred	Yes / No	_____
CRM / project management tool access revoked	Yes / No	_____
Slack / messaging platform access revoked	Yes / No	_____
Cloud storage (Drive / Dropbox / OneDrive) access revoked	Yes / No	_____
GitHub / GitLab / code repository access revoked	Yes / No	_____
Software licenses and subscriptions surrendered	Yes / No	_____
Domain / hosting / server access surrendered	Yes / No	_____
Social media / brand account access surrendered	Yes / No	_____
Handover document completed and signed by HOD	Yes / No	_____
Client / vendor communication plan approved by manager	Yes / No	_____
All project files, source files, and documentation transferred	Yes / No	_____
Role-specific handover items completed (see Clause 12)	Yes / No	_____
Pending reimbursements submitted with valid receipts	Yes / No	_____
Data deletion certificate executed (see below)	Yes / No	_____
No-dues clearance from all departments	Yes / No	_____
Final settlement calculation shared and acknowledged	Yes / No	_____
Exit interview completed	Yes / No	_____

Data Deletion Certificate

I, the undersigned, hereby confirm that:

- All Company data, client information, business intelligence, source files, project files, and Confidential Information have been permanently deleted from all personal devices, personal cloud storage, and personal accounts.
- No copies, screenshots, exports, downloads, or backups of any Company or client data are retained on any personal medium.
- All cloud storage accounts, personal email archives, and messaging applications have been cleared of Company data.
- All AI tool conversation histories containing Company or client information have been deleted.
- I understand that any unauthorized retention or use of Company data after separation constitutes a breach of my confidentiality obligations and may result in legal action including claims for damages.

Employee Signature: _____ Date: _____

HOD Sign-Off: _____ HR Sign-Off: _____